

KNOW YOUR REALTOR

by Grace Hinshaw

Secretary, Multiple Listing Service

(Editor's Note: The Torrance Press is happy to co-operate with the Torrance-Lomita Realty Board in presenting each week a thumbnail sketch of a prominent local realtor. The column, written by Mrs. Grace Hinshaw, secretary of the Torrance-Lomita Realty Board Multiple Listing Service, is designed to better acquaint residents of this area with their real estate brokers and sales people.)

Torrance can thank the climate of Pennsylvania for Florence Sommers' presence here.

The vice president of Torrance's Republican Club came to Torrance as a little girl, when her family moved as far away as possible from coal dust and snowy winters.

Florence was graduated from Torrance High School, went on to Compton Junior College, and finished her formal education by training up her business training with a course at Sawyer's Business School in Los Angeles.

In the office of Columbia Steel, Florence began her business life, enlarging her scope by work in Personnel at the Los Angeles Shipyards and Timekeeping at National Supply Company during the war.

Larry Sommers, when he can get away from his work at the Chicago Bridge and Iron Works, likes to take Florence fishing and bowling. Every spare minute they can find they like to spend at her folk's avocado ranch at Vista, a little spot inland away from Oceanside, and a dream of a place for just plain lazing around.

Florence was initiated into the real estate profession about two years ago when she became a saleswoman for the Home Loan Realty, 2476 Torrance Boulevard. It is the very good fortune of the Torrance-Lomita Realty Board that Florence has found this work so fascinating and satisfactory that she plans to make a career in real estate. At the present time she holds a responsible position on the By-Laws Committee of our Realty Board.
